

DORSEY AND GRICE AT WORK ON FRANK CASE

Solicitor General Dorsey has returned from Florida where he has been resting for several days and on Monday, he and Attorney General Grice began the preparation of the State's Brief in the Habeas Corpus Appeal of Leo M. Frank which will come up for a Hearing before the United States Supreme Court on Tuesday, February 23. Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Grice will be engaged on this Brief during the major portion of the week. They will probably leave for Washington on next Sunday.
